Preliminary Committee:

Preliminary Committee for scrutinising the concept of the proposals consists of Deputy Director General (Commercial and Films), Controller of Programmes (Commercial) and Assistant Controller of Programmes (Commercial). The proposals vetted by this Committee are submitted to Director General for his scrutiny.

Selection Committee:

Selection Committee consists of Director General, Doordarshan, Deputy Director General (Commercial), Controller of Programmes (Commercial) and two non-official members—at least one of whom has to be a lady member. The two non-official members are taken from a panel of 12 non-officials which has been prepared for this purpose.

Review Committee :

In case of appeal against proposals rejected by Preliminary Committee, rejected proposals are put up to Selection Committee which has two non-official members for decision.

Proposals rejected by Selection Committee are reviewed by a larger committee in which there are two other non-official members in addition to the two non-official members who had scrutinised the proposal earlier.

(b) Once the Pilot Programme is seen and approved by the Selection Committee, every episode is previewed by officials of Doordarshan before its telecast.
